

Entry level Business Analyst/ Data Analyst

Sterling, VA

Full-time

Company Description

Software Quality Experts is the link between business and technology, offering a wide range of software services to clients all over the globe. We provide objective business advice of uncommon clarity that helps clients achieve market-leading results. By channeling knowledge and value, coupled with our commitment to quality software services, we at Software Quality Experts have not looked back since our inception. Our growth since our inception have been phenomenal and expected to grow three folds. Software Quality Experts is a full service Information Technology consulting firm with domestic and international offices in several countries. We specialize in delivering superior quality staffing and consulting solutions to our client partners, enabling them to compete in today's dynamic business environment.

Job Description

SQ Experts is currently recruiting for an Jr. Business Analyst and Data Analyst position with one of our best client .

Responsibilities may include:

- Preparation of financial reports.
- Participate in improvement of master data management process.
- Market research analysis.
- Ensure and measure master data integrity.

Requirements:

- Strong analytical skills, work ethic, independence, problem solving ability, effective communication skills, and over-all positive attitude.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Strong computer knowledge and skills, including in-depth expert knowledge of spreadsheet, database, and word processing.
- Strong organizational skills with the ability to multi-task while under pressure.
- Customer service oriented.
- Willing to relocate in US and work as a consultant.
- Ready to give commitment for at least 1 year.

Kindly apply with your updated resume

Qualifications

Bachelors/Masters in Business, Finance, Computer Science, Information Technology, Engineering, Science.

Additional Information

Health, Dental, Life Insurance: SQ Experts provides all its full-time employees with medical insurance. Health Insurance coverage (PPO Plan) is offered by Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield, one of the leading healthcare companies in the United States. This allows easy access to dependable healthcare, through a large network of physicians and hospitals, spread across the United States.

Relocation Assistance: We offer our employees Relocation Assistance, to help them with the relocation costs while starting their project at client site

SQ Experts offers an excellent pay package on par with the industry best with periodic hike.

Workers Compensation: Workers' compensation insurance is provided to all employees, covering them against work related injuries and/or disabilities.

Cookies Settings