

Data Analyst with Power BI Report

Redmond, WA

Contract

Company Description

Scout ET Inc (Our Staffing platform & MJ TALENT (Software Development)

Job Description

Our team is looking for someone who has a creative background and experience writing rich presentations for senior executives. Analysis is preferred but it's OK if the person is not technical or with advanced analytics skills.

Title: Data Analyst with Power BI Report

Redmond, WA

Long Term

Responsibilities:

- Build effective and visually rich presentation to represent data in a meaningful way
- Work with data scientists to build insights based on the data on hand and theme of the study.
- Great on communication with partners
- Work in very agile environment to deliver with a quick turnaround.

Qualifications:

Required –

- 4+ years of experience building visually rich presentation for senior executives in business managers.
- Excel pivoting, charts and slice-dice data.
- Intermediate data analysis experience and insights generation
- Strong experience with data visualization in excel and PowerPoint
- Excellent communication skills – ability to understand the requirements and present the story in a meaningful way

· Excellent communication skills – ability to understand the requirements and present the story in a meaningful way

- Good program management and change management skills – ability to work in very agile environment with quick turnaround

Preferred –

- Market research experience in Consumer space
- Power BI report development
- Experience with SQL programming – ability to query data from SQL database and cubes
- Experience working in marketing teams
- Experience Statistical tools like SAS/R (desirable)

Additional Information

Phani

phani(at)scoutet(dot)com

609 - 888 – 6753

Cookies Settings